Change the program setting to show main menu. If you are using GNU/Linux or Windows OS, follow the directions for your OS. If you are using Mac OS X, select the program menu from the right click of the mouse and hold the option key to open the shortcut menu. Then, select 'Options' from the shortcut menu. After that, in the 'General' tab, select the option 'Show main menu' from the 'Key sequence' box. $g_n = u_n + g_n$ for all $S_n \in \mathbb{N}$, with $S_n \in \mathbb{A}$ and $S_n \in \mathbb{C}$ for all $S_n \in \mathbb{N}$ and $S_n \in \mathbb{U}$ in norm. By the previous lemma, $S_n \rightarrow g$ in norm and the result follows. [9] R. Blei, [A theory of coordinates for probability spaces.] Ann. Math. Statist. [37] (1966), 1563-1568. A.M. Find your way around: The Navigation Bar and new navigator window give you precise control over the cursor. You can navigate in 3D viewport, directly in the drawing area, or in the command line. (video: 1:08 min.) Create drawings in minutes: The new DesignSpace feature allows you to create drawings using any application you can find. Easily handle complex 3D models that you design in other applications. Draw directly on a projected image, using a stylus, or enter data and images directly using the keyboard and mouse. (video: 1:40 min.) Experiment with powerful design tools: The Graph Editor feature allows you to place and arrange elements in your drawings. With the improved Refinement, you can efficiently create precise layouts. (video: 1:40 min.) Manage your designs: Access to the entire family of AcceDraw for the first time! Manage and easily send both versions of your design using the Design Manager. (video: 1:48 min.) Use the Design Review feature: Use the Design Review function to edit, display and correct your designs online with colleagues and collaborators. (video: 1:58 min.) Stay up to date: The new email and calendar features help you stay up-to-date with your designs and deadlines. Easily stay in the flow of your work by checking your email and automatically scheduling meetings from within your drawing.
